DEWAR'S is really dependable for it never varies in quality. Anywhere or any time DEWAR'S is ever mellow and mature. And in stocks of millions of gallons lies the absolute guarantee of its unfailing charm for many a year to come.

Football Arguments

(Q.)—if a defending player trips an opponent who runs over the touch-line in a deavour to keep the ball in play, can the referee give a foul? The two players are over the line, although the ball is in play. The law of the game says a player must not leave the field of play without the referee's permission unless through accident.

(A.)—Although an official decision on Law 13 reads as follows:—"Any player leaving the field during the progress of a game (except through accident) without the consent of the referee, will be deemed guilty of misconduct and will render himself liable to be penalised"—this must not be taken too literally.

As I have pointed out before, when taking a corner kick or a throw-in a player is always on the side of the field of play. A player has seen a full-back charge forward yards over the touch-line, and although the forward has the field of play without the referee's permission, I don't see how he had any other option.

In the case quoted, a player makes to play a ball which has rolled along the touch-line. In his endeavour to keep the ball in play he goes over the touch-line, when he is deliberately tripped by an opponent who has stepped over the touch-line. The ball being in play all the time.

The referee should award a foul kick against the offending player. The kick to be taken from the touch-line nearest to where the infringement occurred.

Eastern Suburbs.

... were decidedly unlucky to have made a draw with Adamstown last Saturday on the home ground. Two penalties were missed by Featherstone Courtney, and the wretched play of the forwards generally very disappointing. Mallock the outstanding player of the back line. The half-backs did their usual good game, both English and Lambie did well. Caminiti made many saves, and thoroughly earned a credit of the Adamstown followers. The same team will be against Auburn, to-day and the Tricolours hope to annex the points.

... second-graders easily acted for Canterbury last Saturday but are up against a stiff opposition to-day. However, although Auburn defeated them on a previous occasion, the Tricolours think they can turn the tables this afternoon. The only alteration in the team to that of last week will be that Flowers takes Flowers' place at inside-left, Carlisle (a new chum) will be the left-wing.

Interstate Selections.

... play of Marshall (Queensland centre-half) in the recent interstate contest, was an eye opener. He was in every move, and played glorious football.

... Traynor also did well, and a expert captain. He has had success with the Queensland side since he commenced football in the State at the beginning of

... son, the other Queensland player selected for Java, was a regular for the Brisbane side in the game, but through the absence of Rigby through injury, secured a chance, and forced himself in the Queensland side, and later the Australian team by brilliant football.

Deacon is the only South Australian. He is a fine utility player, playing left-half, centre-half, and centre-forward.

Grieves, a very fast right wing, and a capable player. He plays for Prahran, Victoria, and is expected to do well in Java.

O'Connor is well known to New South Welshmen, and was mainly responsible for our defeat by Victoria. He is a great player at right-half, centre-half, full-back, or inside-right.

Johnston, the inside-left of Victoria, and the best forward that Victoria has produced for 10 years. Played finely in N.S.W. recently.

Send-Off to Australian Team.

The Australian team will be given a send-off at the Palais Royal on Monday night next, June 20th, when a dance is being held in conjunction with the management of the Palais Royal. Admission will be by ticket, which are obtainable at moderate cost: Gent's 2/5, Ladies 1/5.

The proceeds will be used for the purchase of school footballs, but the tickets sold at the door on the night of the function will not assist this object. It is hoped that all officials, players, and supporters will be certain to secure tickets.

The Java Tour.

AUSTRALIA'S TEAM.

The team to represent Australia in Java has been selected as follows:—

Goal: F. Smith (N.S.W.).

Full-backs: A. Harris (N.S.W., vice-captain), T. Traynor (Qld., captain), Johnson (Qld.).

Halves: C. O'Connor (Vic.), Marshall (Qld.), Deacon (S.A.), Hinton (W.A.), F. Coolahan (N.S.W.).

Forwards: Grieves (Vic.), A. Cameron (N.S.W.), H. Coates (N.S.W.), Johnston (Vic.), H. Robertson (N.S.W.), T. Thompson (N.S.W.).

One forward to be selected.

The team will leave Sydney next Wednesday, June 20th, for Java by the s.s. "Houtman," and will arrive back in Sydney on September 5th. The managers of the team will be Messrs. E. Lukeman (Secretary, Australian Association), and W. Bellis (Hon. Sec. of the South Australian Association).

Australia v. N.S.W.

The match, Australia v. N.S.W. being played at Newcastle to-day has excited plenty of interest.

The teams will field as follow:—

Australia: F. Smith (N.S.W.), T. Traynor (Q.), Hinton (W.A.), F. Coolahan (N.S.W.), C. O'Connor (Vic.), A. Harris (N.S.W.), Grieves (Vic.), A. Cameron (N.S.W.), H. Coates (N.S.W.), Johnston (Vic.), H. Robertson (N.S.W.).

New South Wales: Jordan (New Lambton), Scott (Newcastle), Driscoll (Balmain), Turnbull (Adamstown), Ireland (Corrimal), Bailey (Adamstown), Murphy (Balgownie), Suddick (Balgownie), W. Maunder (New Lambton), O'Brien (New Lambton), Doig (Pymont).

The referee will be Mr. A. Lane (Newcastle).

Football Arguments.

(Q.)—Has an English Cup semi-final ever been played outside of England?

(A.)—Yes; in 1885. Queen's Park, the famous Scottish Amateur Club, played Nottingham Forest at Merchiston Park, Edinburgh.

(Q.)—What free kicks can a goal not be scored direct from?

(A.)—1, centre back; 2, goal kick; 3, player playing ball a second time before it has been played by another player after throw-in or taking a free kick or a penalty kick; 4, offside; 5, carrying by the goalkeeper inside his penalty box; 6, charging goalkeeper at wrong time, the charging being otherwise fair; 7, playing the ball before it has touched the ground after being dropped by the referee to restart play after a stoppage; 8, ball not kicked forward from a penalty kick; 9, improper throw-in; 10, dangerous play.

Football Arguments.

(Q.)—What is the highest fee paid to players in an international match.

(A.)—£10. This sum was paid during season 1907-08 by the English Association, but only for one season—the International Board agreeing that all players of all countries should get the same fee.

* * *

(Q.)—Suppose a player after some incident had upset him on the field decides to wait until after the game before having it out with the referee. He meets the referee in the train and accuses him of incompetency. What would the referee's position be? Could he report the player for being insolent?

(A.)—If the player's attitude was abusive or insolent or ungentlemanly, the referee would be justified in reporting the incident to the Association under whose ruling the game was conducted.

It would be necessary for the referee to inform the player what action he was going to take. A wise course would be for the official to inform the player that if he persisted in his conduct that he would have no alternative but to report him. This would constitute a caution.

Any misconduct towards a referee or linesman away from the field of play is an offence, and he should be treated in the same way as if the incident had occurred on the field.

Once the referee has reported a player or other official of a club, he is not permitted to accept an apology with a view to the complaint being "washed out."

Referees should avoid, whenever possible, coming in contact with players or officials of a club when anything of a debatable character has arisen during the course of a game.

(Q.)—A player when about to take a corner kick moves the flag by pushing it over at an angle. Is his action allowable?

(A.)—No. According to the official decision of the International Board, the corner flag must not be removed when a corner kick is taken. Some people are under the impression that by "removing" is meant taking the flag off the ground altogether. This is never, is not so. The flag must be main perpendicular or at an angle of 90 degrees with the surface of the playing pitch, which is supposed to be level. Accordingly a player who pushes the flag over at an angle is removing the flag, which is contrary to law and should not be allowed.
